Mole Corner

BED AND BREAKFAST

Poling, near Arundel, West Sussex

Between the Sussex Downs and the Sea

Arundel is the ideal base from which to explore the beautiful countryside and many places of interest in West Sussex.

Along with three designated Areas of Outstanding Natural Beauty - Chichester Harbour, the Sussex Downs and the High Weald, this area offers a diversity of fascinating places to visit.

The town itself boasts an array of activities and sites of interest - Arundel Castle, Arundel Cathedral, and the Wildfowl and Wetland Trust.

Plus many events nearby - horse racing at Goodwood, motor sport at the Festival of Speed and Revival meetings, Fontwell Races and the Arundel Arts Festival in August.

Breakfast is served in the conservatory overlooking the garden.

In addition to this it has a rich mixture of medieval and Victorian architecture - cobbled streets, narrow lanes, antique shops, small museums and tea-rooms.

Mole Corner

is situated in the tranquil village of Poling which is approximately 2 miles outside of the historic town of Arundel.

This traditional family house, which offers bed and breakfast facilities for up to five guests, is set in a country garden with farmland views.

Our newly refurbished rooms are clean and spacious and comprise of two double en-suite rooms and one single room with access to modern bathroom facilities.

All rooms have tea and coffee making facilities and a television.

There is ample off road parking and for guests using public transport, Arundel station is a short drive by taxi.

Mole Corner is very easy to find being only minutes from the A27 (the main south coast road).

Please note that Mole Corner is a no smoking establishment.

Mole Corner is open all year round
